

Come See and Hear the:

Capital City Ringers

Handbell Ensemble

Sunday, March 15,
3:00 PM

At Immanuel
Lutheran Church

1505 West Michigan
Jackson, Michigan

The Capital City Ringers are an auditioned community handbell ensemble from Lansing, Michigan. They are a volunteer group who has performed in various Michigan communities and many other states.

The ringers provide a high quality musical experience for diverse audiences. The group performs on a full 7 octave set of Malmark English bells, a 6 plus octave of Malmark English choirchimes, often adding a variety of other instruments.

Their Music Director is Mark Loring who has extensive musical education and experience. He is also associated with the Jackson Symphony Community Music School.

This is a free concert sponsored by the Tuesday Musicale of Jackson.